When a loved one dies,
How do you find out if
They had any Life Insurance?

Who gets that money, if nobody knew what insurance existed or where to collect?

Were you supposed to be a Beneficiary?

We will check each and every life insurance company at its headquarters to ask if they have any records about the life insurance policies you are seeking!

Thank you for your Inquiry. I would be most pleased to have the opportunity to serve you. Twenty-three years ago, L.L.I.F.E. made up a complete listing containing the names and addresses of Insurance Company Claim Centers across the United States. We continue to maintain our Master List on a daily basis. We use this listing in its entirety for every search.

The major insurance companies all have centralized offices in one or two large cities, but they do business in some form, in most areas of the country. Therefore, most of the largest companies have their central offices located many miles away from you, but they still do a lot of business in your immediate area.

The challenge is to create a good letter that clearly explains the facts and also asks for a search for policy records. Our total fee for preparing and mailing such a letter to over 420 companies is $108.50. For that price, I generate at least 420 individual letters for you from information you provide to us. You could not buy enough U.S. postage stamps, if you were doing the same job yourself, for that low price. Locating addresses for each letter, and individually addressing, folding and inserting, would also require extraordinary amounts of your time.

I do all of that for you, with delivery promised in 48 hours or less! I do not need copies of your papers, nor your Power of Attorney. We are willing to do the prep and mailing of your request letters. The letters contain your name and address, not mine. Therefore, the companies who receive them, do the requested searching, and respond directly to you, ONLY IF THEY FIND SOMETHING. They will contact you directly for any additional items they may require.

Simply complete the Lost Life Insurance Policy Search Form and send it with your check by regular first-class mail. We can talk and discuss things by Email or telephone. Finished letters may be sent as E-mail attachments (.pdf format).

I have 56 years experience in the Insurance Business. I worked as a Life Underwriting Consultant in the 1960s, as Vice President of a Life Insurance Underwriting Department, a Claims Department, a Service Department, and a Data Processing Department in the 1970s and 1980s, and for the Virginia State Insurance Department in the mid-1990s. Now, customers call me for information, and I am glad to give it freely, even after 9:00 p.m. AND on weekends.

A form is attached. You do not need to use it, unless you find it convenient. If you reply by e-mail, without using the form, please try to include answers to the questions that appear on the form, including full name and mailing address.

We significantly reduce OUR postage costs by immediately sending every letter by individually-dialed, long-distance FAX messages. These FAX messages even bypass the Company mail-handling delays.

MISSION STATEMENT

To assist bereaved family members with problems faced when a loved one dies without revealing adequate information about in-force life insurance.

To assist deserving family members to locate records and information that was previously unknown to them.

To respond quickly and personally to inquiries received from potential beneficiaries of lost life insurance policies in a friendly and personal way, without cost, when possible.

To provide the general public and probate attorneys with a low-cost, highly efficient means to find death benefits, pension benefits, and annuity values for deceased clients' family members.

To assist attorneys and estate settlement officers to discern facts about total worth of estates for probate and to discharge obligations to provide due diligence to clients before estates are formally closed.

To assist Law Enforcement officers to eliminate the possible motive of wrongdoing for financial gain inherent in investigations of unusual death.

To uncover fraud: Do you "feel" that somebody has put a life insurance policy on your life without your knowledge?
